INDEN WHISKEY. This WHISKEY is made in the old fashioned copper still, by ble distillation, just beyond the summit of the Blue Ridge, in Warren county, Va., near the line of Fau-quier, where the softness and purity of the mountain spring water, and the quality of the rye, con-stitute important elements in making the Whiskey for which this locality has been long celebrated. It is perfectly pure, beyond all doubt, being made exclusively of rye, hops, and barley malt, with the utmost care. The quantity made is limited, and bought principally for private use, by gentlemen connoissieurs in the surrounding counties, who are critically nice in laying by a stock for improvement. small consignment has lately been made to MARSHALL & WARD, of Alexandria; or it can be procured direct, through correspondence wit DR. FISHER, of Linden, Warren County, Va. oct 25-eotf

FOR SALE—My farm in Fanquier county, containing by a recent survey. FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY-SIX ACRES and 29 poles. This land lies on the Rappahannock river, about a quarter of a mile from the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and in an excellent neighborhood. There are on it, a very convenient DWELLING HOUSE, spacious barn, and other out houses, all in good repair. A never failing spring of pure water, is within forty yards of the house—ice-house, and ice pond, as near. The fields not in cultiva-tion, are well set in grass, and taking into view its close proximity to the Railroad, Post Office, Grist Mill (a mile off,) and other advantages, this farm may be safely recommended as very desirable property. Any one wishing to see the said farm will be shown it by Mr. H. T. Embry on the place. Terms made known by JOHN S. KNOX,

FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

The Charter of this Company offers more favora-ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium n cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to to 30 Hoops—with many other new goods bought year. This is the advantage resulting from the at great reduction on spring prices, making our year. This is the advantage resulting from the mbination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become nembers of the Company, and over seventy thouand dollars have been paid for losses. Having percased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this ompany a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the passion of the Celestials for the sleepy-drug: "Yet there never was found, in any age or in any clime, a tribe, a race, or a nation, which had not some stimulant in which they habitually indulged. Mrs. Chinaman takes her mundungus; her husband varies the same pleasure with an occasional whiff of the stronger narcotic. I wish he would drink beer or whiskey or gin, or British brandy, for they are all recognized means of intoxica tion, and British manufactures. But he steadfastly refuses-Que voulez yous? Il est fait comme cela. A Chinaman loves opium as he loves nothing else. The head of a Parsee house at Hong Kong was so civil as to take me in his ware-house and to open two chests of opium, that I might see the drug as it passes in commerce. The first consisted of balls the size of a large apple dumpling, and when cut open the mass was found to be solid; the other was full of objects which a commander in the navy not long since ordered his men to return to the owners of a captured junk. "Arn't you ashamed, my lads, to loot a lot of miserable Dutch cheese?" The 'Dutch cheeses' were fine Patna opium worth about £5 each. They are globes of thick dark jelly enclosed in a crust, not unlike the rind of

"My Parsee acquaintance tapped one with a tragment of an iron fastening of a chest, and drew forth about a spoonful of the evil smelling drug. It was not the opium which engaged my attention: it was the effect produced by it upon the surrounding coolies .-I never before saw real excitement upon a Chinaman's face. I've seen them tried for their lives and condemned to death, and I've seen them test the long-suffering patience of Mr. Tudor Daveis in the Hong Kong Police court, where that gentleman is daily engaged in laborious endeavors to extract truth out of conflicting lies. I've seen them laugh heartily at an obscene gesture at a singsong, and once saw a witness grin with great delight as he unexpectedly recognised his most intimate friend, a tradesman of reputed wealth, among a crowd of prisoners in the dock .-But these coolies, when they saw that opium, opened their horizontal, slit shaped eyes, till they grew round and starting, their limbs, so lax and limped when not in actual strain of labor, were stiff from excitement, every head was pressed forward, every hand seemed ready to clutch. There was a posssibility that it would be put down upon the window sill near which we were standing. I could see the shadow of figures ready to slide in .-It was almost certain that it would be thrown aside-there was the grand hope of an opium debauch gratis, and this was the state of mind that hope created. The Chinese governments have long ceased to strive against this pas sion for opium. I doubt whether they really ever did strive against it. At one time, when the balance of the trade was against China, the opium was drawing the Sycee silver out of the country, and Lin thought it absolutely necessary as a matter of State policy to stop the traffic. A Chinese official is the Joseph Surface of diplomacy; be his deeds good or evil, they are certain to be concealed under a mass of fine sentiments."
